Biography

Walter S. Prickett was born in Medford, New Jersey in 1864. Growing up in Marinette, Wisconsin, he moved to Michigan in 1893 to work in the logging business for Miles Wheeler and J. & W. Flatt, after which he went to business for himself, making his headquarters in Sidnaw, Michigan. Involved with dealing in land and timber, Prickett also owned Roycroft Farms, successfully breeding sheep and Angora goats and Berkshire hogs as well as maintaining Jersey dairy cows and growing grains and potatoes. Prickett also maintained a general store on his property in Sidnaw. He had interests in hydroelectric power and financed the construction of the dam in Sturgeon River. Prickett's Sturgeon River Dam Project became the source of power provided by the Baraga Light and Power Company of which he also headed.
