Historical Note

Camp Blueberry Knoll was one of three campsites purchased by the Girl Scouts of the Portage Lake Area and Council (later Peninsula Waters Girl Scout Council) for use in the Upper Peninsula. The site Southwest of Houghton's city limits was established as a camp in 1974 after a trial daycamp was held on the property. The site was established with minimal, primitive camping facilities that included a roofed shelter, latrines, water, tents, and equipment. Early active participants in the camps' establishment were Doug Stuart, Norma Lee Stuart, and Nadie Janke.
